

100 YEARS YOUNG CONGRATULATIONS, ANDREW FOGARTY!

May 1, 2019 was a day to remember for Andrew

Fogarty, his family and the Irish Community at large: the former President of St. Patrick's Society celebrated his 100th birthday.

It pleases me no end to be able to write that. He marked the big day with his family. 100 years young! Imagine! What a milestone! Only a few weeks ago, Andrew gave us all a wake-up call when he had a medical setback. It was not long after I had the pleasure of anticipating his birthday at the Erin Sports breakfast: I surprised the huge crowd and lead a rousing chorus of "Happy Birthday" to a delighted Andrew.

The big "Thank You" for his pre-birthday chorus

Women adore him. It's not just because he brought female members into the St. Patrick's Society out of love and reverence for his wife of almost 65 years. There are those who say he's a great dancer. Others like to sing with him. For me, it's his good humour, the thumbs up, the encouragement, the listening, the intelligent conversation and the banter. He's simply good company and a compassionate soul who has a history of volunteerism.

He has served as President or as a board member of various organizations including

A WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Community Members,

What a wonderful season of #IRISHING we have just concluded! I am grateful that I survived my first Irish Season as President. I am looking forward to next year even though it will be hard to top some of the experiences gained from this year. I have very fond memories of celebrating with our Guests of Honour including Minister Catherine McKenna, His Excellency, Ambassador Jim Kelly, The Honourable Jean Charest, the Right Honourable Brian Mulroney and our many other honoured guests. I thank them all for their enthusiastic participation.

I extend my heartfelt appreciation to all of the St. Patrick's Society's Committee Chairs and to their armies of committee members. A job well done to all. I'd also like to congratulate our Sister Societies who organized events during this very busy season as well. There is no denying that the Irish spirit is alive and well in Montreal. In particular, thank you to: Ms. Carol McCormick, Chair of the Luncheon Committee, Mr. Ken Quinn, Chair of the Ball Committee, and Martina McLean for the seasonal publication of Nuacht. All of these fabulous teams, planned for many months to organize the events. In fact, we are now planning our events for 2020. Mark your calendars as follows: Annual Charitable Ball, March 6 2020 (location to be confirmed) and the Annual Lunch will take place on March 17th 2020 (Le Centre Sheraton). We are open to suggestions for next year's Guest of Honour, Guest Speaker, and Honourary Chair of the Ball. Please feel free to drop me a line,

In addition to the committee members, a huge thank-you to Katie Irving, our superstar office administrator – we are all indebted to you and your outstanding organization, and good sense of humour. Though I am thrilled for you and your upcoming maternity leave, on a selfish level, I will miss you terribly next year.

We were very fortunate this year to have a number of Corporate Sponsors, and Patrons who helped us raise a significant amount of money. Without their support, our events would have had much less impact. I thank them, and I encourage you all to support them for their commitment to the Montreal Community. In particular, I would like to thank Sean Finn (CN), Power Corporation and Hurley's, whose extremely generous support has made it possible for the Society to financially support the community. By June 30th this year, our Board of Directors will have approved over 66,000 $ in charitable, educational and cultural grants to the community.

In my position as President this year, I have had many opportunities for reflection about next steps for the Society. I believe that a Society that celebrates tradition must also look forward to the future. I was so happy to see the many youth and junior members at our events this season. From the United Irish Societies' Queen and her Court, to the many School of Irish Studies students who participated in our events, it was wonderful to have them as guests. I hope to see them at many more. We need to encourage as many youth as possible to get involved so that we continue to remain relevant in the modern world. It is in this context that the Society has recently renewed its financial support to the Montreal Irish Football Club, to the Canadian Irish Studies Programs, as well as to the GAA. These three organizations in particular are doing a tremendous job at connecting with youth, and St. Patrick's Society is proud to help support their endeavours.

There were also moments of sadness this season. We were all shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Ms. Beverly Murphy, Past President of United Irish Societies, and member of SPS. We all recognize Beverly as someone who was very dedicated to the community – her passing is a huge loss to us all. On behalf of the Society, I offered our condolences to her son, Kevin Murphy (Director of SPS), and his family. May she rest in peace.

I would also like to take this opportunity to offer Mr. Andrew Fogarty a very happy birthday! Andy recently turned 100 years young, and all of us at St. Patrick's Society wish him well. You can read more about Andy and his achievements here in Nuacht. As only the 3rd female President of the Society, I am very grateful to him for opening up the Society to women in the 1980s and for his continued wise guidance as a Past-President. We look forward to sharing some birthday cake in the future!

Please be on the lookout for the invitation to our General Members' meeting which will take place on June 6th at St. Patrick's Square. I also hope to see you

When I asked him the reason for his longevity, he just smiled. It's the twinkle in his eye, his zest for life, his enjoyment of the company of others, especially younger people, his humility and freely giving of himself and his talents for others.

We love you, wish you a speedy recovery and look forward to seeing you at an event soon.

SELLOUT LUNCHEON - THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

By Carol McCormick

The St. Patrick's Day Luncheon has always been a successful key event for St. Patrick Society's fundraising endeavours. This year was exceptional, not only owing to the funds raised but also the number of people in attendance.

We were 614 people gathered together this year to celebrate our heritage! Of course, it goes without saying, that our guest speaker, The Right Honorable Brian Mulroney, former Prime Minister of Canada was the main draw but there were some other moments that also made this year's luncheon stand out for me.

To honour the Prime Minister and all those present, we invited the 438 Tactical Helicopter Squadron Brass Quintet and their singer, Sergeant Marc Adolph to lead us in the Canadian National Anthem. I glanced over at the Prime Minister and I could see that it brought a tear to his eye. As I looked about the ballroom, I had the overwhelming impression of a sense of pride in being Canadian.

Mr. Ken Quinn, Vice President of St. Patrick's Society presented Ms. Lori Morrison with the 2019 St. Patrick's Society of Montreal Community Award.

Our raffle this year helped our fundraising by bringing in over $6,000.00. The two tickets to Ireland were won by Miss Maureen McCormick. They were presented to her by Ms. June Tiffney, Regional Sales Manager in Canada for Aer Lingus. I tried to persuade Maureen that we were related and would be happy to accompany her to Ireland but there was no way of convincing her of that.

Mr. Mulroney was introduced by his longtime friend and colleague, The Honorable Jean Charest, who was our guest speaker last year. At the end of his speech, Mr. Charest signaled us to play a recording of Mr. Mulroney singing, "When Irish Eyes are Smiling". I had the privilege of receiving one copy of his CD that he recorded for his children and grandchildren. I have to say Frank Sinatra was lucky that Mr. Mulroney went into politics rather than showbiz! Mr. Mulroney then spoke to the audience. He did not disappoint us. In a way only he can deliver, with eloquence, fervor and conviction, Mr. Mulroney enlightened us about what he believes it means to be Canadian. As he was going to celebrate his 80th birthday a few days later, we surprised him with a 3-tier birthday cake and the uniformed 438 Tactical Squadron and Sergeant Marc Adolph led us in a rousing rendition of "Happy Birthday". Once again, Mr. Mulroney was touched and showed his appreciation for our gesture. But that was not all! Our President, Christie Brown presented him with his own shillelagh (walking stick) as a birthday gift from St. Patrick's Society. Hand made in Ireland especially for Mr. Mulroney, the shillelagh is historically a weapon made from the blackthorn bush. Thank you Canada Customs for ensuring its timely arrival!

We were thrilled with the positive reviews as people expressed their appreciation of the day – even though it was slightly longer than usual.

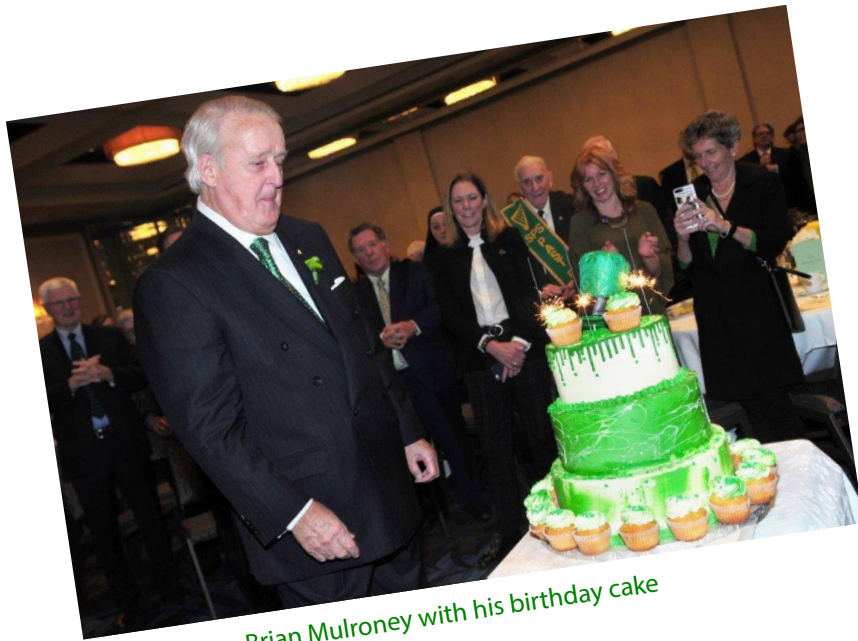

As I close this 2019 event, I end my role as Chairman of St. Patrick's Society Luncheon. I have great memories of the last five years as Chair and I salute the wonderful team that worked with me to make it happen each year. I will miss them terribly. As a guest speaker is important to draw the crowds to an event, so is a well committed group of people to organize and make such an event happen. I would like to take this opportunity to name that team and to acknowledge how honored I have been to work with these generous gifters of their time: Laurie Bennett, Christie Brown, Ann Mary Butts, Anne Marie Côté, Louise Guimond, Katie Irving, Paul Loftus, Maureen McCormick, Ann McMahon Rusnak, Brian Payne, Ken Quinn, Andrea Stanford, and Pat Short.

Last but not least, are you the attendees and audience, the faithful, who, year after year, come and support St. Patrick's Society of Montreal in their endeavour to help the community. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the encouragement you have given the Society and will continue to do so in years to come. As Bob Hope once said: "Thanks for the Memories".

196TH ANNUAL MONTREAL ST. PATRICK'S PARADE

By Ken Quinn

For 186 years, St. Patrick's Society of Montreal has either played a pivotal role in organizing Montreal's iconic St. Patrick's Parade or has been a participant. On March 17th, the Parade returned to a more familiar but shortened route for its 196th edition: Saint Catherine Street from Fort to Mansfield.

Spectators of all ages and communities lined the route to celebrate the Irish community and to welcome spring to Montreal. They certainly were not disappointed with the many bands, colourful floats, clowns and mascots to entertain them.

St. Patrick's Society, again a parade sponsor, participated with a strong contingent and was visible throughout the parade with signage at the reviewing stand and on banners in the parade. Our unit was preceded by the Montreal Pipes & Drums. Led by president Christie Brown, the group was a family- friendly unit of members, old and new.

Several St. Patrick's Society members were front and center at this year's celebration. Director Paul Loftus proudly walked down the street in his second and final parade as United Irish Societies president. Society member, Sean Finn walked the parade route as Grand Marshal, following in the footsteps of a long line of great people.

Although the Society came up empty this year in the trophy department, our contingent was filled with fun, friendship, laughter, and pride as we marched east along Saint Catherine. We're already looking forward to the 197th edition.

Ready for THE PARADE, three generations of Phelans: Chris, Michael and Daniel

Our hearty congratulations must be extended to the United Irish Societies and its army of volunteers who work tirelessly year round to make the annual Parade the premier parade in the city and the country as well as to all who helped organize our contingent and keep it in line.

Despite the cold and a shorter route, 15 floats, some 2,000 people from 100 organizations, 17 bands... participated

JAMES CONNOLLY VISITOR'S CENTRE

By Kevin Callahan

On Friday, April 19th, one hundred American and Canadian trade unionists marched up the Falls Road in Belfast to mark the official opening of the James Connolly Visitor's Centre. Connolly, one of the signers of the 1916 Proclamation, was executed by the British for his role in the Easter Rising.

President of Ireland Michael D. Higgins delivered the keynote speech for the official launch of the new centre Áras Uí Chonghaile. Higgins described the importance of Connolly in his own time as someone who brought together the ideas of nationalism, internationalism, trade unionism, gender equality, and social justice as well as noting the relevance of his thinking for Ireland today.

Among other speakers were British Trades Union Congress (TUC) general secretary Frances O'Grady and Irish Congress of Trade Unions (ICTU) assistant general secretary Owen Reidy, as well as the MP for West Belfast, Paul Maskey.

An especially interesting aspect of the Centre is that funding from the Belfast City Council was a joint initiative between Sinn Féin and the Democratic Unionist Party (DUP). The Centre will be both a major tourist attraction in Belfast and a resource for unions in Ireland and the UK.

24TH ANNUAL ST. PATRICK'S GOLF TOURNAMENT

By Dave Dubeau

The 24th Annual St. Patrick's Golf Tournament will take place on June 18th at the Bellevue Golf Club.

Over the years, thanks to your participation, well over $250k has been raised, contributing to the good works of the Society.

The cost of this year's tournament is $150 which includes a full breakfast, brunch, green fees, golf cart and a prime rib dinner with wine.

If you would like to only attend the dinner, the cost is $50.

Again this year, on the course, all golfers will be treated to the complimentary Guinness and shots, compliments of Hurley's. It really is a great day at an affordable price for a good cause.

If you would like to take an ad in the program or sponsor a hole, please contact the office. Also, prize donations would be much appreciated.

If you would like to register or have any questions you can contact the society at www.spsmtl.com or call the office at (514) 481-1346.

CINÉ GAEL 27TH SEASON - A GREAT SUCCESS

By Ken Wilson

Ciné Gael Montréal closed its twenty-seventh season on Friday May 3, 2019 with the hard-hitting prison drama, Michael Inside. Dafhyd Flynn's seemingly, effortless intensity emphasized by the stark body language was matched pitch perfect to Frank Berry's tight direction and up-close camera work. As a bonus our audience members were treated to a short, friendly introduction recorded by the director with Dafhyd by his side. Since this movie was the closing film, everyone was invited afterwards to a reception for a glass of wine and wonderful food. These receptions are always terrific opportunities to meet other members and share thoughts on the films presented.

As we look back at the twenty-seventh season, several highlights stand out.

We were ecstatic to land Black '47, the truly explosive story set in the time of the infamous Great Irish Famine. This film set the tone for the season and raised the bar for expectations.

February's boxing theme was a knockout. In early February, we were introduced to Frances, the tough female boxer played by Hazel Doupe in the award-winning film, Float Like A Butterfly. The young actress, Hazel Doupe was kind enough to send us a recording with a brief introduction before the film was presented. Later in the month, we were delighted to screen, Rocky Ros Muc, the story of the famous Irish boxer, Sean Mannion who emigrated to America and became a protégé of the Irish mob in Boston. Before the film, Montreal Canadian legend, Chris Nilan, graciously agreed to speak introducing both Sean and the neighbourhood that Sean called home for many years.

After the film, the audience was treated to a Q&A session via Skype with one of the producers, Ronan Mac Con Lomaire who is always an entertaining speaker even when it's 2 a.m. in Dublin.

In March we presented the extraordinary documentary film, Shelter Me: Apollo House that dealt with the homeless crisis in Dublin. An added bonus that evening was the Skype conversation after the film with the actor and writer, Terry McMahon, who was one of the participants in the occupation of Apollo House.

Also in March Lomax in Éirinn was presented. The brilliant introduction by Ciné Gael Montreal's very own, Antoine Maloney, set up the movie perfectly allowing audience members to situate how and why Alan Lomax was such an influential figure in music preservation.

One of Ciné Gael Montreal's annual highlights is the evening of short films. This year was no exception and the audience was left struggling to determine the best of an incredible slate of short films. When the final votes were counted, the clear winner was Bonnie Dempsey's film All in Good Time, a touching film about two young people living in very different times.

Ciné Gael Montreal's committee members would like to thank all of its loyal season pass holders, its sponsors including the St. Patrick's Society of Montreal, and all those people who attended films this season, for their tremendous support in 2019 and we look forward to presenting the best possible Irish films starting in January 2020.

TARA GOLF 2019 SEASON

By Ken Quinn

Tara Golf is gearing up for another season of golf. Mother Nature has delayed the first tournament of the season by two weeks. Members will be hitting the links at Piedmont on Saturday May 25th followed by six additional outings throughout the Summer.

Tara Golf is an offshoot of the Montreal Shamrocks GAC. In 1961, four members had a vision to form an Irish Canadian Golfing Society whose main objective was to gather Irish immigrants through the game of golf and by holding socials, helping to preserve their culture and identity.

In an effort to attract new members, the association is discounting its cost to join by 50%, this year's regular rate is set at 15$. If you're looking to enjoy some fresh air and get some leisurely exercise this summer, join Tara Golf where there is no restriction on membership.

The Association is also considering organizing a golf trip to Ireland in 2020. Although no plans have been made, if you're interested in joining in on the fun, we'd love to have you. Please contact President Sheila Largin - (slargin@icloud.com) to express your interest.

A NEW EXECUTIVE FOR THE UIS

By Ken Quinn

Corresponding Secretary, Carol McCormick; Vice President - Organization, Patty McCann;
Vice President - Advertising & Public Relations, Kevin Murphy;
President, Patricia Mulqueen; Senior Vice President, Kevin Murphy;
Treasurer, Jane Skelton; and Immediate Past President, Paul Loftus

On May 5th the United Irish Societies of Montreal held its Annual General Meeting, where discussions were held on topics such as the 2019 Parade, its end of season Banquet, and what lies ahead. As is the privilege of all departing UIS presidents, Paul Loftus bestowed Gold Card (Life) membership on two longtime community members - former AOH President, Brendan Deegan and longtime UIS Executive, Jane Skelton.

Following the conclusion of the meeting, President of Election, Danny Doyle took control of the meeting, attended by roughly seventy people on a sunny Sunday afternoon. In a rare occurrence two Elected positions were contested - Senior VP between SPS members Kevin Murphy (also a Director) and outgoing Corresponding Secretary, Craig Nolan and Vice President - Advertising & Public Relations between outgoing Recording Secretary, Wendy Paquette and Parade Assistant Director, Kevin Tracey. All candidates spoke to the UIS membership present, after which voting began. At the conclusion of ballot counting, Kevin Murphy emerged as the UIS Senior Vice President with Kevin Tracey assuming the Vice President - Advertising & Public Relations position vacated by Kevin Murphy, joining acclaimed Elected Executives President Patricia Mulqueen, Treasurer Jane Skelton, Vice President - Organization Patty McCann, Corresponding Secretary, Carol McCormick, and Paul Loftus shifting into the role of Immediate Past President. Clearly, there is an SPS flavour to this election and the composition of the newly elected executive.

We congratulate the UIS on the successful completion of its Annual General Meeting and look forward to the continuation of the mutually beneficial relationship between our organizations.

SAVE THE DATES FOR THE BLOOMSDAY FESTIVAL 2019

By Judith Shurman

We are lucky this year in that the Jewish Public Library (JPL) heralds Montreal's annual salute to James Joyce and things Irish just two weeks before Bloomsday 2019 gets under way. Professor Pól Ó Dochartaigh from the National University of Ireland (NUI) - Galway, is giving a lecture entitled "Exploring Irish-Jewish Autobiographies" on May 30. A related exhibit at the JPL continues until June 17.

Thence to music. Atwater Library welcomes Bloomsday 2019's faithful to lunchtime of the musical favorites of James Joyce's wife, Nora Barnacle on the first day of this year's five-day festival, Tuesday, June 12. Both Joyce and Nora loved music: Joyce himself had a very good singing voice while Nora loved opera. So music is the theme of this year's events. Poetry and song appear on Thursday evening's program and the next day, Irish Studies students at Concordia will present their latest findings from research into the theme of music in James Joyce's works. On Saturday evening, at the Loyola campus of Concordia, John Donahue will introduce Riders to the Sea, a short one-act opera by Ralph Vaughan Williams with cello and piano accompaniment.

But it isn't all music. On the Saturday morning, Donovan King, actor, teacher and historian, will lead a post-colonial walking tour to reveal some of Montreal's hidden histories, starting out at Milton Gates. For those who have tried once or twice or many times to read Ulysses, there is a session that offers tips on how to get into the book and survive the experience. It is very worthwhile. Try it for yourself on the Wednesday evening at 688 Sherbrooke St. W.

In fact, there is something for everyone at Bloomsday 2019.

Save some time between June 12 – 16 and come see for yourself!

MONTREAL IRISH DANCING SCENE

By Pat Short

Photos: Christie Brown and Pat Short

Congratulations to Casey Costello on his first student qualifier for the World Championships of Irish Dancing which was held in Greensboro, N.C. from 14th to 21st of April. The Bernadette Short School also represented Montreal with fifteen boys and girls

There was a major change in the format of competition this year. It had a devastating impact on top dancers, from many schools, who usually make the "recalls" and did not get past the first round. The only Montreal area dancers who got to the final round were Short School's James Houghton, Michaela Isaacson and Abbey Chaub.

The 40th consecutive Ville Marie Feis took place at John Abbott College last Saturday. Over 500 boys and girls competed in jigs, reels, hornpipes and figure dances for medals and trophies kindly sponsored again this year by St. Patrick's Society of Montreal.

In order to create a family day for all non-dancers and dancers alike, we installed a "bouncy castle" and had some face painters on site to add to the festivities. The "terrace" Bar-B-Q was also a popular hang-out for the moms and dads to enjoy burgers and hot dogs along with some adult beverages. Entertainment here was provided by the ever popular "Mariner's Curse".

Former dancers and now certified teachers with the Bernadette Short School, Lucas Lawton and Natasha Woytiuk have spent the last few months touring with a professional Irish dancing show. The tour mainly included American cities, however Kingston, ON. was included as a venue.

Following the tour Lucas joined another show in New Zealand and Natasha joined the entertainment group on a cruise ship operating in the North Sea. A great experience for Montreal's top Irish dancers.

MONTREAL AT QUEBEC CITY'S ANNUAL ST. PATRICK'S PARADE

By Ken Quinn

Montreal's St. Patrick's Parade is the granddaddy of all parades and our members thoroughly enjoy participating. However, it isn't the only parade around. Of course Chateaugay and Hudson are building their community's annual homages to St. Patrick with great resolve. There are parades in Rawdon and Richmond as well. But did you know that Quebec City has an Irish parade to call its own?

Since 2010 the Montreal Irish Community has participated in Quebec City's annual parade. In 2015, when the Montreal Parade was held on March 22nd and Quebec City Parade on

This year, a hearty group of members from various organizations in Montreal's Irish community filed onto a coach bus early in the morning of March 23rd to head east with all their Parade regalia to participate in the 10th Anniversary of Quebec City's St. Patrick's Parade. The larger organizations such as The United Irish Societies of Montreal and St. Patrick's Society were represented in good number. I was pleasantly surprised to see a healthy number of members of the Erin Sports Association join in on the fun.

Looking great, post parade at Quebec City Hall

Montreal Parade royalty was joined by members of the Hudson royal court. For at least the third consecutive year, Toronto St. Patrick's Parade big boss, Shaun Ruddy joined us and marched at the head of our group along with Montreal's community leaders.

Shaun Ruddy, Toronto St. Patrick's Parade

The Parade took off from St. Patrick's High School at 14h00 and made its way along Grand Allée for a good distance before reaching its dispersal point at Quebec City Hall, at which point our group walked a short distance to Pub Saint Patrick, joined by Quebec City Parade leaders such as Bruce Kirkwood, Laura-Lee Bolger, Félix-Antoine Paradis, and Conrad Castilloux. We were very thankful for the hospitality received and were sad we had to say good bye shortly before 18h00 when we had to depart for home.

March 21st, when it became clear there would be no walking contingent from Montreal in Quebec City, it was my pleasure to continue our uninterrupted run when I volunteered to get back to basics and be a parade marshal in Quebec City before travelling back to Montreal to fulfill my obligations in our parade.

If you have never joined in on this fun day-trip to Quebec City, we highly recommend you participate. We guarantee you won't be disappointed.

ICCC PUB QUIZZES BRING THE COMMUNITY TOGETHER

By Lynda Premerl

The Ireland Canada Chamber of Commerce, Montreal Chapter held two quizzes – the first last fall, on October 24, 2018 at McKibbin's Irish Pub on Bishop Street (<http://www.mckibbinsirishpub.com/>) and the second, this spring on April 17, 2019 at Hurley's Irish Pub on Crescent Street (<http://www.hurleysirishpub.com/>).

First and foremost, I'd like to acknowledge and thank these two ICCC Corporate members for their continued support and generosity in providing the venue, complimentary finger food and four gift certificates for these pub quizzes.

Our quiz master for both events was none other than the talented, Sean Murphy with his usual array of brain-teasing questions of varying degrees of difficulty.

Last fall, we tried something new with the introduction of a co-host, me. It helped, I didn't mind, and we were able to finish on both occasions around 9 p.m., perfect timing for a week-night event.

The ICCC European Pub Quiz in October 2018 was exceptional with ten teams taking part and this year's ICCC Irish Community Pub Quiz in April was also a success with seven teams competing for the Brian McKeown Memorial Trophy. It's great to see some regulars and we welcome newcomers anytime!

Thanks to the ICCC members, their friends and our sister societies, SPS <https://spsmtl.com/> and UIS <http://unitedirishsocieties.ca/> who helped spread the word about these regular, informal and enjoyable events.

Here are the winning teams:

- In first place for both 2018 and 2019, the team was, "Blowin in the Wind". In 2018, they each received a bottle of wine and in 2019 a bottle of Irish whiskey as well as the Brian McKeown Memorial Trophy.

- In second place, 2018, the lucky team was "Put a Cork in It" and each received a McKibbin's gift certificate. This team had previously won a complimentary entry to an ICCC Pub Quiz when they attended the 2018 St. Patrick's Society Charity Golf Tournament. In 2019, our second place team was the "Spice Gang". They received gift certificates from Hurley's.

- In third place, the prize was a movie pass and the winning teams were "Casey & the Sublime Fans" (2018) and St. Patrick's Society members' team, "The Fookin Idiots" (2019), who have placed five times out of seven.

2nd place team, Fall 2018: Put a Cork in It
Aletha Thompson, John Peters, Valerie Rouleau and Vaughn Peters

Over and above the regular pub quiz portion of the evening, three door prizes were drawn and lucky winners walked away with a great prize. We are very grateful for the continued support of the sponsors who donated these wonderful gifts as door prizes for both the fall 2018 and spring 2019 pub quizzes:

- Shortbread, donated by Peggy Regan of Gryphon Bakery <http://www.gryphonbakery.com/>
The winner was Ron Rosenthal in 2019.

- Bramble House gift basket, donated by Karen Bright and Diane Hodges <http://www.bramblehouse.net/>
The winner was Ben Kalman in 2019 and Paul Loftus in 2018.

- Etoiles et Tous gift basket, donated by Marlene Shoucair <https://www.epicesettout.ca/>
The spring 2019 winner was Francois Noel.

1st place team, both quizzes: Blowin in the Wind
Cynthia Costigan, Charlotte Costigan, Ronald Rosenthal and Stavroula Varvakis and quiz master, Sean Murphy at the rear

THE SCHOOL OF IRISH STUDIES TO HOST MAJOR IRISH STUDIES CONFERENCE

By Marion Mulvenna

Irish Studies began in 1991 and evolved into a separate academic department at Concordia University in 2009. To mark the 10th anniversary of the School of Irish Studies, a series of special events is being held in 2019.

As part of the year-long series of events marking the tenth anniversary of the creation of the School of Irish Studies, the annual conference of the Canadian Association for Irish Studies (CAIS) will be held at Concordia this year, organized by Professor Jane McGaughey, Associate Professor of Irish Studies. She is also President of CAIS.

The conference will welcome about a hundred delegates from Canada and around the world, and will schedule academic lectures and panel discussions on a wide range of topics, as well as keynote lectures by Professor Joanna Burke (Birbeck, University of London) and Professor Rhona Richman Kenneally (Concordia University). Other events will include: the premiere of a major film on the tragic story of an Irish immigrant ship to Quebec; a reading and Master Class in creative writing by the high-profile Irish writer Kevin Barry; the launch of the most recent edition of Winter Papers, the exciting Irish cultural journal edited by Kevin Barry and Olivia Smith; the launch of a special issue of the Canadian Journal of Irish Studies on the contemporary Irish Short Story edited by Michael Kenneally; and, in conjunction with Montreal Jewish Public Library a special exhibition, Representations of the Jews in Irish Literature, with an opening lecture titled "Hyphenated Identity: Irish-Jewish Autobiographies," by Professor Pól Ó Dochartaigh, National University of Ireland Galway. Conference registration is open to the public. <https://sites.events.concordia.ca/sites/concordia/en/cais2019>

Irish Studies Welcomes Dr. John McCourt as the 2019 Peter O'Brien Visiting Scholar

Dr. John McCourt is a Full Professor of English Literature at the Università Degli Studi di Macerata in Italy. Dr McCourt is one of the most eminent scholars of James Joyce and the co-founder and joint director of the Annual Trieste International Joyce School at the Università di Trieste. Dr. McCourt has also held several visiting professorships and research fellowships over the course of his career.

He will be teaching "James Joyce" and "Highlights of Irish Literature" this Fall at the School of Irish Studies.

Ireland Canada University Foundation 2019-20 Irish Language Instructor

Nigel Govan has been appointed to the position of Teagascóir Gaeilge / Irish Language Instructor for Concordia University's Irish Studies students for the academic year 2019-2020. Nigel is from Dublin, speaks fluent French and is an experienced Irish dancer. We look forward to welcoming Nigel to Montréal.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

By Martina McLean

At a celebratory lunch in March 2019, St. Patrick's Society member, Beverley Rozek-O'Donnell was presented with the Msgr. Russell Whitton Green Medal by Msgr. Francis Coyle for her dedication and hard work.

What a great occasion for Msgr. Coyle too as he married Beverley and Vincent O'Donnell in 2010 at St. Patrick's Basilica.

Among Beverley's many accomplishments, it is worth noting that she was the first female member of Saint Patrick's Society and served as its Secretary for many years. She has also served as director of Saint Patrick's Square and as a member of the board of the Loyola College Alumni. A warden of Saint Patrick's Basilica from 1999 until her retirement at the end of 2018, she served as President of the Roof Committee and successfully raised over $600,000 in 1997 for the replacement of the Basilica's copper roof. She was also lector at Sunday Mass and for some years, the Basilica's official tour guide, a volunteer role she had much experience with since her days as a guide at Château Ramezay.

Msgr. Breen was the ninth pastor of St. Patrick's Basilica and the one who will be remembered for initiating a multi-million dollar restoration of the Basilica.

Samantha Cambridge

Sponsored by:

The Ottawa Rose Centre's 10th Anniversary took place on Saturday, April 27th at the Residence of the Irish Ambassador to Canada from 6-9 p.m. Samantha Cambridge, who lives and works in Montreal as an Airport Sales Agent for Air Canada, was thrilled to participate.

A graduate from Concordia University with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, Samantha is passionate about her Irish heritage (her people hail from Monaghan) and the Irish community here. She studied abroad for a year in Ireland at the National University of Ireland, Maynooth, as part of an academic exchange where she got involved in the musical theatre scene. In 2016, Samantha was honoured to represent the Montreal Irish community as the Queen of their 193rd St. Patrick's Parade.

After spending two years with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League, Rob Payne has accepted the position of Offensive Coordinator with the Saint Mary's Huskies in Halifax. Helping the Eskimos reach the West Division Final and leading the CFL in 21 Statistical Categories, Rob is taking on the responsibility of leading the Huskies through the Atlantic University Conference and onto the national stage. The Huskies finished 7-1 last season and came just shy of a division championship. Head Coach, James Colzie III, an Alumnus of Florida State, knew of Rob since 2016 and gave him a call when the position was opened. Rob is extremely excited to start this new chapter and bring new ideas and perspective to an already strong Saint Mary's football team.

IN MEMORIAM

By Martina McLean

We extend our condolences to the family of Olive Elliott, sister of Honourary member, the Right Honourable Brian Mulroney. Olive passed away on March 10, 2019, just a few days before Brian's keynote address at St. Patrick's Society Luncheon.

Olive was the eldest of six and was an excellent student, in addition to being a dedicated Brownie leader. She was also a brilliant public speaker, winning the 1949 high school public-speaking competition with a speech titled "Welcome Newfoundland", much to the dismay of the second-place finisher, her brother Brian, the future Prime Minister of Canada.

We are saddened to learn of the passing of Dr. Andrew Bobkowicz, the father of Andrea Bobkowicz, on Friday, March 15, 2019 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Andrea is the Treasurer, long time member and supporter of the St. Patrick's Society. We send her our deepest sympathies as she grieves her loss.

Margaret Crighton Baker, native of Ireland, passed away May 4, 2019, at the wonderful age of 101. She was predeceased by her husband Albert (Bert), her siblings: John (Jack), William (Bill), Douglas, Agnes and Peter and her parents Agnes and Peter.
